Platypus Theatre

Since 1989 Canada's Platypus Theatre has been a trailblazer in creating programs for children that bring classical music to life in an intelligent, entertaining and interactive way. Critics, educators, musicians, parents and children have lauded the company's performances for their creativity, originality and high standards of execution. Platypus' seven original programs have been seen by over half a million spectators in Canada, the United States, on seven tours to Southeast Asia and most recently, in Australia. After nearly 400 concerts with more than 65 orchestras worldwide Platypus Theatre has gained an unparalleled reputation for excellence in music education. In 2006, in collaboration with TV Ontario, Trace Pictures and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Platypus Theatre created a television adaptation of their ever-popular, "How the Gimquat Found Her Song". The film was broadcast six times on TVO and won an Award of Excellence at the 2007 Accolade Television Awards and Best Children's Program at the prestigious 2008 Banff World Television Festival. The film is now on DVD and available at www.platypustheatre.com and at the concerts. Platypus Theatre was also the subject of a nationally broadcast documentary made by CTV (CKCO Kitchener) in 1991 and of a PBS television full-performance broadcast in 2000. In Addition to "Gimquat" the company's programs include: "Emily Saves the Orchestra", "Rhythm in Your Rubbish", "Bach to the Future", "Song of the Forest", "Charlotte and the Music-Maker" and "A Flicker of Light on a Christmas Night".

Peter Duschenes, Artistic Director, Writer and Actor

Co-founder and Artistic Director of Platypus Theatre, Peter Duschenes has been widely praised for his innovation in presenting symphonic music to young audiences. His ability to bring the concert stage to life by combining theatre and music has led to commissions with orchestras from coast to coast. An award winning playwright, Peter's writing credits include all seven of Platypus' symphony plays, the television adaptation of "How the Gimquat Found Her Song" and the one-act play, "Lost River", which was the 1991 winner of the Theatre BC's Canadian National Playwriting competition. As an actor Peter has performed with companies across Canada and the United States appearing most recently as Richard in Shakespeare's "Richard II" at Quantum Theatre in Pittsburgh and as Louis Ironson in "Angels In America" at the Centaur Theatre in Montreal. Peter received his MFA in theatre from the California Institute of the Arts in 1988 and now lives in Ottawa with his wife, Sarah and their two children; Magda and Theo.

, Actor

2011 marks Ms. Desormeaux's 13th season with Platypus Theatre and she's still loving it! Film and television credits include: "How the Gimquat Found Her Song" (Award of Excellence at the 2007 Accolade Television Awards, Best Children's Program at the 2008 Banff World Television Festival), the Oscar-winning "Affliction" (dir. Paul Schrader), "Stardom" (dir. Denis Arcand), "The War of 1812", "Big Sugar" (dir. Brian McKenna). Stage credits include: "The Comedy of Errors" (dir. Peter Hinton NAC/Centaur), "Romeo and Juliet" (dir. Jean Asselin), "National Capital/e Nationale" (dir. Robert Lepage – NAC), "The Anger In Ernest and Ernestine" (dir. Alain Goulem), "The Tempest" (dir. D.D. Kugler), "Housekeeping & Homewrecking" (2007-08 Montreal Critics Circle Award – Best Ensemble). Ms. Desormeaux’s work in improvisation and clown has led to the creation of new theatre works including “Rhythm In Your Rubbish” for Platypus Theatre, the critically acclaimed “Umloüt”, and “MöcShplat” (clown-gibberish versions of Shakespeare’s “Hamlet” and “Macbeth”). When left to her own devices, Ms. Desormeaux can be found jamming with her pals and cooking up a storm at her home in Montreal.

Patrick Cardy, Composer (1953-2005)

Born in Toronto and raised in Kitchener, Patrick Cardy earned three music degrees: a Bachelor degree from the University of Western Ontario and a Masters degree and Doctorate from McGill University. He was a Full Professor at Carleton University in Ottawa where he had been teaching since 1977. Patrick received over 40 commissions from numerous performers and institutions, including the National Arts Centre Orchestra, the Edmonton Symphony, the St. Lawrence String Quartet, the Newfoundland Symphony and the CBC Vancouver Orchestra. His works have been performed and broadcast frequently in Canada, in the United States, in Europe and in the Middle East. "Rhythm in Your Rubbish" was not the first time Patrick had written music for a dramatic story. He composed music for performances of "The Little Mermaid" and "The Snow Queen" both done with a narrator and string instruments. His music is characterized by colorful, evocative sounds, a strong dramatic sense, an elegant lyricism and an accessible directness of expression, traits that have captivated both listeners and performers. Patrick died suddenly in 2005. He is sorely missed.

Wendy Rockburn, Stage Manager

Wendy Rockburn is an Ottawa-based stage manager with over 20 years in the business. She has worked in theatres mostly in eastern Canada, including The National Arts Centre and Great Canadian Theatre Company in Ottawa, Centaur Theatre in Montreal, Thousand Islands Playhouse in Gananoque, Neptune Theatre in Halifax, and Canadian Stage and Tarragon in Toronto. She is also a world traveler and photographer, just returned from Ethiopia, having previously explored China, India, Kenya, Peru, Ecuador, Bolivia, Turkey, Egypt and Morocco. The tremendous opportunity to work with the world-renowned Platypus Theatre is a wonderful meld of these two loves.
